

Targeting malaria elimination:
An assessment of malaria control interventions for children in Zanzibar
Netta Beer

Errata

Location	Original text	Correction
Page 6, List of publications Publication IV	Accepted for publication in BMC Public Health	This paper is now published, and the reference is: BMC Public Health 2012, 12 :606
Page 13, 2 nd paragraph, line 6	with EIRs usually between 1 to 5 per person per year	with EIR usually below five per person per year
Page 15, 2 nd paragraph, line 13	it has been show	it has been shown
Page 15, 5 th paragraph, line 2	Combining IRS and ITN	Combining IRS and ITNs
Page 23, 1 st paragraph, line 5	include hospitals, clinics pharmacies	include hospitals, clinics, pharmacies
Page 34, 5 th paragraph, line 3	[25]	Reference 25 is not the correct one for this citation. The correct reference is: Dahlgren L, Emmelin M, Winkvist A: Qualitative methodology for international public health . Umeå: Umeå University; 2007.
Page 57, 5 th paragraph, line 2	The thesis includes both qualitative (Studies I, II & III) and quantitative methods (Study IV)	The thesis includes both quantitative (Studies I, II & III) and qualitative methods (Study IV)
Page 58, 4 th paragraph, line 4	LLINs and ITNs one the other hand	LLINs and ITNs on the other hand
Paper I, page 767, Study area, paragraph 3, line 1	March 2006	May 2006
Paper I, page 768, data analysis, paragraph 2, line 4	using $\chi^2$ with p-values adjusted for cluster effect	with CIs adjusted for cluster effect
Paper III, page 6, paragraph 4, line 3	Factors associated with under-five bed-net use...	Factors associated with under-five LLIN use...
Paper III, page 9, paragraph 1, line 4	Associated with effective coverage of bed-nets	Associated with effective coverage of LLINs
Paper III, page 12, paragraph 1, line 6	with effective coverage.	with LLIN effective coverage.