

Cardiometabolic health in students and young adults with mild/moderate intellectual disabilities: Results from a longitudinal follow-up study and a school intervention.

Doctoral Thesis
Eva Flygare Wallén

ERRATA LIST

Thesis

Page	Chapter	Line/figure	Written	Should be
1	1.1	1	Sweden and Norway are the two countries	Sweden and Norway are two countries
2	1.1.1	4	Reference 7	Reference 10
5	1.2.4	1	Reference 30	Sonnander K, Emanuelson I, Kebbon, L. Pupils with mild mental retardation in regular Swedish schools: prevalence, objective characteristics and subjective evaluations. Am J Ment Retard. 1993; 97:692-701
5	1.2.4	1	Reference 31	Blomquist HK, Gustavson KH, Holmgren G. Mild mental retardation in children in a northern Swedish county. Ment Defic Res. 1981; 25:169-86
14	1.6.1	5in particular.	in the National Board of Health and Welfares guidelines (174).
14	1.6.1	5	The Act also points out that	The school should create....
22	3.3.1.1.2	3	(Papers I and III)	(Papers I to III)
23	3.3.1.3	16	LBM	FFM
24	3.3.1.5	7	LBM/min). LBM	FFM/min). FFM
46	4.9	Figure 15a and b		 Figure 15a. An aggregated risk score in sub-study I, comparing the groups ID, non-ID-p and non-ID-t. Figure 15b. An aggregated risk score in sub-study II, comparing the groups ID, non-ID-p and non-ID-t.